A Note From Our Pastor

My Dear Parishioners,

This Sunday is Gaudete Sunday and we join the whole Church in hopeful anticipation of the celebration of the Incarnation of our Lord Jesus Christ. I am so glad that we sing the Entrance Antiphons because this week the Antiphon proclaims the very tone of the Mass, “Rejoice in the Lord always; again I say, rejoice. Indeed, the Lord is near.” (Philippians 4:4-5) This week we wear the rose colored vestments in honor of the hope and joy we celebrate awaiting the birth of Jesus.

I know that it can be difficult during these times to muster hope, but we can take comfort from our patron, Saint John the Baptist, who is the voice crying out in the desert. He never gave up on his mission which was to testify to the Light and encourage preparation for the coming Messiah. Jesus Christ is the Light in the darkness and our Gospel proclaims it through the words of Saint John the Baptist.

We look to our Lord for hope and peace amidst the difficulties we experience and prepare our hearts for His coming. Let us watch and wait, for the Lord is nigh. I would like to close with the Collect Prayer for this Sunday which expresses our posture during this Advent:

O God, who see how your people faithfully await the feast of the Lord’s Nativity, enable us, we pray, to attain the joys of so great a salvation and to celebrate them always with solemn worship and glad rejoicing. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Peace,
Fr. Mike

This traditional Advent Mass of the Blessed Virgin Mary is offered just before dawn. In the dimly lit setting, priests and faithful prepare to honor the Light of the world, Who is soon to be born, and offer praise to God for the gift of Our Lady. Here are a few pictures from this beautiful Mass:

Solemn High Christmas Midnight Mass

- Missa O Magnum Mysterium by Victoria

Christmas carols begin at 11:30pm
Dear brothers and sisters in Christ, The Introit [entrance song], as well as our Epistle of today exhorts us with, “Gaudete in Domino semper, et iterum dico vobis, gaudete…” – “Rejoice in the Lord always, again, I say, rejoice…” St. Paul [Ph 4:4] tells us to set all care aside, and we find that this sets the tone for the waning days of Advent. Our watchful preparation for the coming of the Christ-Child is gaining steam; by the end of this week, we shall be half-way to Christmas. For centuries, the Jewish people were yearning for the Messiah and for ultimate deliverance. Ps. 84 gives voice to this – turning away the captivity of Jacob. We find release from the captivity to sin in Jesus, and now, for centuries, we have been awaiting His final return in glory. There are so many layers to holy Advent – He came in the Incarnation [past], He comes to us each Eucharist [present], He comes at the end of time [future].

In Philippians, the English speaks of our “moderation”; Paul speaks of ἐπιεικὲς = epieikes, and this more precisely means “gentleness” – our gentleness is a telling characteristic of the Christian. The Gospel of today takes us to the banks of the River Jordan. This is the record of John, that the Jewish authorities sent those who were knowledgeable in the law and the prophets to interrogate the Baptist. How interesting is the initial answer, “I am not the Christ.” Did they really ask that, or did the Baptist simply recognize their intent? So, what is he? Malachi 4:5-6 tells us “that God will send Elijah “before the great and terrible day of the LORD comes.” Jesus clearly identifies Elijah with the Baptist (Mt 17:10-13 & Mk 9:11-13). The Baptist knows his scripture – and that he is the fulfillment of Isaiah 40 – “the voice of one crying in the wilderness” to prepare the way of the Lord. Indeed, the Lord is coming. The reason why he baptizes is to call sinners to repentance, to “make straight in the desert a highway for our God.”

The Carmelite contemplates that grace finds its source through the humanity of Christ. At the beginning of this new liturgical year, we would do well to linger at that moment when He first took this humanity to Himself. The humanity of Christ came to us through Mary. Desiring to delve into this Mystery, we can take no better guide than she. It is not simply a pious practice to ask the Virgin Mother to guide our mind and heart as we long to contemplate the Incarnation of her Son. This is precisely as to what we, as her children, should do. To Jesus Christ be all glory forever!

“I see clearly that if we expect to please Him and receive an abundance of His graces, God desires that these graces must come to us from the hands of Christ, through His most Sacred Humanity, in which God takes delight.”

Revised 4/21/20
This year, we are excited to announce a new way for our Parishioners to help those most in need this Christmas! Current COVID restrictions do not allow us to use our “Giving Tree” in Church as we have in the past. So this year we are offering the “Angels” of the St. John’s Family an opportunity to help in a “2020 way”.

All of the Angel tags below list requests from various families in need. If you would like to donate for a specific family, please text 609-516-0769. State the Family number and what you would like to donate and a reply will confirm if that item is available. If the donation is not available an alternative will be suggested.

Please bring all donated items, UNWRAPPED, to the main entrance of the Church no later than December 14. Place in the containers marked Christmas Gifts. If clothing, a gift receipt is appreciated. The St. Vincent DePaul Society and the Altar Rosary Society would like to thank everyone for their generosity at this difficult time. We wish you and your families a Merry Christmas and a Blessed New Year!
