A Note From Our Pastor

My Dear Parishioners,

As we continue our Advent journey of hope, we hear about the voice crying out in the desert, which is our own patron, Saint John the Baptist! His theme is of repentance and preparation of the way of the Lord. This also can refer to our own hearts. We are asked by God to ready our hearts for the joy that we will experience at the birth of Christ. Through prayer and reflection on the reality that God became man in the Incarnation, we have a great reason to hope. Jesus is the source of our hope because His Incarnation is the undeniable guarantee that God, the only One capable of saving us from our sins, actually wants to save us from our sins. He hasn’t given up on us. This is the source of real hope, Christian hope.

Today’s First Reading puts it beautifully when it describes why God’s people should rejoice: “Jerusalem, herald of good news! Fear not to cry out and say to the cities of Judah: Here is your God! Here comes with power the Lord God, who rules by His strong arm; here is His reward with Him, his recompense before Him.”

During Advent, the Church invites us to remember that we are remembered, and to rejoice in the hope that memory inspires. All it takes is to make a firm commitment to spending five, ten or fifteen minutes each day alone with God. This daily prayer doesn’t have to be complicated. We can come here to the Church and sit with our Lord in the tabernacle, simply speaking with Him in the silence of our hearts. We can sit in our favorite chair at home and read and reflect on a short passage from the Scriptures or from a solid Catholic book. We can pray a decade of the Rosary, turning our thoughts to the great mystery of God’s saving love. This simple practice will help us to come closer to God and therefore He will be closer to us!

Peace,
Fr. Mike
Brothers All,

Thank you to all who participated Saturday in setting up the Nativity scenes at both the Statehouse in Trenton and in front of St. John’s. The weather was wet and chilly but you braved the adverse conditions to get the job done. Thanks also to Fr. Mike for blessing the Creche’ in Trenton.

We are currently accepting applications and posters for the Keep Christ in Christmas Poster Contest. See the flyer in this bulletin for details.

Our next Business Meeting will be Monday, December 14, in the Church Hall. It will also be streamed via Webex if you choose to participate remotely.

Just a reminder that each week on Wednesday beginning at 6:00pm (before the 7:00pm Mass), Brothers Deacon Mike Scannella and Phil Clingerman are leading an Hour of Devotion and prayer before the Most Blessed Sacrament. Please reach out to our Faith Director Dan Nazzaro at dpnazzaro@yahoo.com if you are interested in participating in this devotion.

Finally, please keep Brothers Joe Gendron, John Fiore, Jim Christenson and Victor Giglio in your prayers.

Vivat Jesus!

Rorate Caeli Mass
in Honor of Our Lady
Saturday, December 12, 2020
6:00am
Traditional Latin High Mass
Rev. H. Todd Carter, Celebrant

Illuminated only by candlelight,
this special Votive Mass
honors Our Lady in preparation for the coming of the Light of the World.
Dear brothers and sisters in Christ, our Mass begins with Introit [entrance song], “Populus Sion, ecce Dominus veniet ad salvandas gentes...” – “People of Sion, behold the Lord shall come and save the nations...” This prophecy from Isaiah [Is 30:30] sets the tone for Advent. Our watchful preparation for the coming of the Christ-Child is gaining steam; by the end of this week, we shall be half-way to Christmas. For centuries, the Jewish people were yearning for the Messiah and for ultimate deliverance. We find the fulfillment of this in Jesus, and now, for centuries, we have been awaiting His final return in glory. There are so many layers to holy Advent – according to St. Benedict, He came in the Incarnation [past], He comes to us each Eucharist [present], He comes at the end of time [future].

In the Epistle, it speaks of “patience and comfort from the Scriptures.” Paul’s exhortation to the Church at Rome is δια τῆς ὑπομονῆς καὶ δια τῆς παρακλήσεως = “through endurance and through encouragement” by the Scriptures. The dynamic equivalence is that the endurance and encouragement ultimately lead to patience and comfort. Our season of Advent is one of conversion of self – receiving patience through endurance, and comfort through encouragement received from the promises of God to His faithful people by Scripture. May the good God grant us all patience and comfort.

The Gospel presents two principal facets. Disciples of John want to assure that Jesus is indeed the Messiah – Jesus answers hearkening back to Isaiah for proofs of this by the signs and wonders that are seen. Jesus turns to the crowd and asks what they were expecting to see in John, something rich and marvelous? – no, it is nothing like that, but something even more marvelous – a metaphorical “angel” who is the greater than any other man, born of woman [cf. Lk 7:28].

The Carmelite has a great devotion to John the Baptist, because he is a second coming of OHF Elijah, the prophet – the prophet who metaphorically returns before the coming of the Messiah [cf. Mt 11:12-14, Mk 1:2-4, Lk 1:17, 7:27]. John of the Cross is like John the Baptist in his search for the Anointed One of God. And yet, the Carmelite knows that the Spirit of God dwells within the soul. Let us ponder the indwelling of God as we make our way through this holy season. To Jesus Christ be all glory forever!

“What more could I desire, and what do I seek outside of myself, O my Lord and my God, when You have deigned to put Your kingdom, Your dwelling place, in my very soul?”

~ from “The Spiritual Canticle” 1,7-8 of St. John of the Cross
[Juan de Yepes y Álvarez, 1542-1591] OCD, Pr.,C.,D.

Revised 4/21/20
Gifts From Angels

This year, we are excited to announce a new way for our Parishioners to help those most in need this Christmas! Current COVID restrictions do not allow us to use our “Giving Tree” in Church as we have in the past. So this year we are offering the “Angels” of the St. John’s Family an opportunity to help in a “2020 way”.

All of the Angel tags below list requests from various families in need. If you would like to donate for a specific family, please text 609-516-0769. State the Family number and what you would like to donate and a reply will confirm if that item is available. If the donation is not available an alternative will be suggested.

Please bring all donated items, UNWRAPPED, to the main entrance of the Church no later than December 14. Place in the containers marked Christmas Gifts. If clothing, a gift receipt is appreciated. The St. Vincent DePaul Society and the Altar Rosary Society would like to thank everyone for their generosity at this difficult time. We wish you and your families a Merry Christmas and a Blessed New Year!
