My Dear Parishioners,

During these final weeks of the liturgical year, the Church calls us to consider the eternal truths. These truths are of immediate relevance to our souls. As we read in our Second Reading of today’s Mass, our encounter with the Lord will arrive without warning, “like a thief in the night.” No matter how prepared we think we are for its arrival, death always takes us by surprise.

The master in today’s parable stands for Christ. The servants stand for each one of us. That is the first lesson we should think about. Do we think of ourselves as servants, as dependent on God? Most people tend to think of themselves as the center of the universe. And our contemporary society, so full of technological power and easy pleasures, increases that tendency of our fallen nature.

But this parable and many others are very clear: we are not God; we are not the center of the world; we are dependent upon God and our job in this life is to know Him, love Him, and serve Him. Only by doing that will we find the happiness we desire, because doing that is what we were created for. Humans were created to know, love, and serve God.

The parable also tells us how we are supposed to do that. God has given each of us a certain number of "talents." In Greek, that word referred to a large sum of money. In the actual meaning of the parable, however, it refers more to what the English word implies - all the abilities and blessings we have received from God. God has given them to us, and we are free either to squander our gifts, burying them in the hole of self-indulgence, fear, laziness, and greed, or to use them as Christ would have us use them, which is the secret to happiness in this life and the life to come.

Peace,
Fr. Mike

Is God Calling You to the Fullness of the Catholic Church?

Join us! Our RCIA Program has begun!

Now is an exciting time to be welcomed into the fullness of the Catholic Church! If you or someone you know is thinking about entering the Catholic Church, or perhaps was Baptized but never received the Sacraments of Holy Communion and/or Confirmation, please leave a message for Vince Gelsomino at the Parish Office number 609-259-3391 for information about our Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults Program.

Participants meet throughout the fall and winter and will have the opportunity to receive the Sacraments of Baptism, Holy Communion and/or Confirmation during the Easter Vigil Mass on Saturday, April 3, 2021.
Brothers All,

This is the last week for our Thanksgiving Food Drive for the needy. Please see the flyer in this bulletin for suggested items for donation. You can bring them to the Church anytime during the week through this Friday. Also, we will be assisting in the distribution of the food packages on Saturday, November 21 at 9:00am. We need many hands for this effort, so if you can help, please email me at allentownknights@gmail.com.

Next Sunday at the 10:00am Mass, we will be recognizing the 2020 scholarship winners. We offer our congratulations to the winners and our sincere appreciation to those who donated to make the scholarships possible.

During the weekend of November 28/29, we will be offering a Rosary before each Mass for all pro-life intentions. If you are attending one of the Masses, please come 25 minutes early to fully participate. If you are willing to lead the Rosary, please let me know via email.

Just a reminder that each week on Wednesday beginning at 6:00pm (before the 7:00pm Mass), Brothers Deacon Mike Scannella and Phil Clingerman are leading an Hour of Devotion and prayer before the Blessed Sacrament. Faith Director Dan Nazzaro has reached out to some of you requesting participation in this worthy program. Please give him the courtesy of a response.

Finally, please include Brothers Joe Gendron, John Fiore, Jim Christenson and Victor Giglio in your prayers.

Vivat Jesus!

"Resumed Sundays after Epiphany"

Because the date of Easter changes each year, the number of Sundays from Epiphany to Lent and from Pentecost to Advent is variable. If there are more than 23 Sundays after Pentecost, the Introit, Gradual and Communion of the 23rd Sunday after Pentecost are repeated on all the remaining Sundays. Today we are celebrating the Sixth Resumed Sunday After Epiphany. The Collect, Epistle and Gospel are taken from the Mass of the Sixth Sunday After Epiphany, which was omitted after Epiphany earlier this year.

REFLECTION FOR THE SIXTH RESUMED SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY

℣. Praised be Jesus Christ…  ጒ. Now and forever!

Dear people in Christ, we know what you are thinking – “I thought that Epiphany was in January – what is this celebration doing in November? What’s this ‘resumed’ stuff?”

Your answer: The traditional Roman Missal has 6 Sunday Masses assigned for the Time After Epiphany and 24 Sunday Masses assigned for the Time After Pentecost. Taken together, with the other Masses assigned for Sundays, the traditional Roman Missal has a total of 53 Sunday Masses (enough for each week of the year). But depending on how early or late Easter is in any given year, there may be less than 6 actual Sundays after Epiphany and more than 24 actual Sundays after Pentecost. When this happens, those prayers and readings from the Sunday Masses which were not said during Time After Epiphany are said on the Sundays between the 23rd and 24th Sundays After Pentecost (the 24th Sunday After Pentecost is always said on the Sunday immediately before the 1st Sunday of Advent). On these “Resumed” Sundays After Epiphany, the proper chants (Introit, Gradual, Alleluia, Offertory, and Communion) of the 23rd Sunday are repeated. If there are less than 24 actual Sundays after Pentecost, the Mass assigned for the 23rd Sunday After Pentecost is omitted. There – confused yet? No worries…

Dear family in Christ, this day we reflect upon what is good and pleasing to God. The collect [opening prayer] points us to fix our gaze on “reasonable things’ – humanity is the creation of God that is distinctive in the possession and use of reason. St. Paul encourages the Church at Thessaloniki to be “mindful” of their work. The Carmelite develops relationship with God against the backdrop of reason – to follow the counsel of Psalm 131: “O Lord, my heart is not lifted up, my eyes are not raised too high; I do not occupy myself with things too great and too marvelous for me.” All things guided by the virtue of prudence that governs right reason. In the Gospel, we use right reason to embrace that God can take the merest morsel of things to bring great and wonderful things into being – Jesus uses many parables that convey the nature of God.

OHF John of the Cross expounds upon prudential detachment from inordinate desires. Union with God is what the purpose and end of our life should be – all else is waste. By the mere fact that a soul loves something, it renders us incapable of pure union and transformation in God. May even a smidgen of Faith and attendant prudence instruct us to keep our “eyes on the prize.” To Jesus Christ be all glory forever!

“The devil often purveys objects to the senses, affording to the sense of sight images of saints and most beautiful lights … He does all of this so that by enticing persons through these sensory objects he may induce them into many evils.”

~ Saying of OHF St. John of the Cross [Juan de Yepes y Álvarez, 1542-1591] OCD, Pr.,C.,D.

November: The Month of the Holy Souls

Requiem aeternam dona eis, Domine, et lux perpetua luceat eis.
Requiescant in pace. Amen

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.
May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace, Amen.

We have arrived at the month of November, which is dedicated to the Holy Souls in Purgatory. Throughout November, Holy Mother Church asks us to offer sacrifices and prayers for the remission of debt incurred by those faithful departed souls whose sins were already forgiven. In order to assist these souls, we will remember the names of the deceased that are noted on the back of our All Souls Day envelope (sent to all parishioners, example of one pictured below) for the entire month of November. Although no stipend is required for this act of charity, your sacrificial contribution would be gratefully accepted. Envelopes can be returned by mail or dropped off in the collection baskets at Church.

Our Church also offers an important opportunity to relieve the Holy Souls in Purgatory through fervent prayers for the deceased. By visiting a cemetery and praying every day from November 1 to November 30, one may also gain a plenary indulgence for the faithful departed. Here is helpful information on obtaining plenary indulgences for the Poor Souls:

SIX GENERAL RULES FOR OBTAINING A PLENARY INDULGENCE

1. State of grace at least when performing the indulgenced act
2. Confession (20 days before or after the indulgenced act)
3. Reception of Holy Communion (20 days before or after the indulgenced act)
4. Prayers for the Holy Father
5. Complete detachment from sin (even venial sin)
6. Performance of the indulgenced act, usually a special good work with certain conditions, places or times

INDULGENCED ACTS TO BE PERFORMED FOR A PLENARY INDULGENCE

NEW: From November 1 to November 30: Visit a cemetery and pray for the poor souls (1 per day, with the indulgence applied to a faithful departed; extended to the entire month due to COVID)

NEW: From November 1 to November 30: Visit a Church or Oratory and recite one Our Father and the Creed

(1 per day; extended to the entire month due to COVID)

A partial indulgence can be obtained at any time by visiting a cemetery and praying for the Poor Souls.
