During the month of November, let us pray for all of the faithful departed.

Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.

May the souls of the faithful departed,

through the mercy of God, rest in peace.
Amen

Local Food Bank Donations

Monthly food bank donations are collected the first weekend of every month. This weekend is a collection weekend! Please place nonperishable donations in the containers that are located in the front vestibule of the Church. Kindly contact Mr. Fred Kniesler at 609-259-7476 with any questions about this important outreach to those most in need.

Is God Calling You to the Fullness of the Catholic Church?

Join us! Our RCIA Program has begun!

Now is an exciting time to be welcomed into the fullness of the Catholic Church! If you or someone you know is thinking about entering the Catholic Church, or perhaps was baptized but never received the Sacraments of Holy Communion and/or Confirmation, please leave a message for Vince Gelsomino at the Parish Office number 609-259-3391 for information about our Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults Program.

Participants meet throughout the fall and winter and will have the opportunity to receive the Sacraments of Baptism, Holy Communion and/or Confirmation during the Easter Vigil Mass on Saturday, April 3, 2021.

Parish Office

Our Parish Office remains closed to visitors, but the Staff continues to work remotely. Kindly contact us by email at StJohnAllentown@optonline.net or by phone at 609-259-3391 if we can be of assistance. Please note that this Wednesday, November 11 is a Diocesan holiday for our Office staff.

Altar Flowers

Flower Intentions can be offered for the flower bouquets on the sides of the High Altar and the side altars in remembrance of a loved one or for an intention of the living.

The flowers this weekend are generously offered by our two newly married couples:
Andrew and Ashley Garriton
Jesse and Jessica Harrison

Sanctuary Lamp

Offerings for your intentions are available on a weekly basis for the Sanctuary Lamp, which burns night and day before Our Lord, truly present in the Tabernacle.

The Sanctuary Lamp is offered this week for Mildred Romano, requested by John and Beverly Fiore

Weekly Collection

Sunday, November 1, 2020: $9,521.00
All Souls Donations (to date): $4,168.00

We are grateful for all donations received at our Sunday Masses, electronically through Online Giving, through the postal mail and through direct drop-off to our campus mailboxes. Visit StJohnRomanCatholic.org for information about our popular online giving option.

A Note From Our Pastor

My Dear Parishioners,

This week we celebrate the 32nd Week in Ordinary Time and our Lord shares a parable concerning preparation in our Gospel. Preparation is so important because it helps us to plan ahead. I remember my father used to always say to me, “Remember the five P’s and an R!” He meant that poor prior preparation gives pretty poor results. That always stuck with me and is especially true when it comes to the spiritual life.

We find ourselves in tumultuous and it can be difficult to see our Lord working in a world that seems filled with tension, strife and fear. How do we navigate this and find our strength in Christ? We can be prepared by taking time in prayer so that our Lord can remind us that despite the darkness, we may see that He is the light of truth and He will dispel the darkness.

In his encyclical Veritatis Splendor, The Splendor of Truth Pope Saint John Paul II reminds us,

“People today need to turn to Christ once again in order to receive from Him the answer to their questions about what is good and what is evil. Christ is the Teacher, the Risen One who has life in Himself and Who is always present in His Church and in the world. It is He who opens up to the faithful the book of the Scriptures and, by fully revealing the Father’s will, teaches the truth about moral action.

At the source and summit of the economy of salvation, as the Alpha and the Omega of human history (cf. Rev 1:8; 21:6; 22:13), Christ sheds light on man's condition and his integral vocation. Consequently, “the man who wishes to understand himself thoroughly — and not just in accordance with immediate, partial, often superficial, and even illusory standards and measures of his being — must with his unrest, uncertainty and even his weakness and sinfulness, with his life and death, draw near to Christ. He must, so to speak, enter Him with all his own self; he must ‘appropriate’ and assimilate the whole of the reality of the Incarnation and Redemption in order to find himself. If this profound process takes place within him, he then bears fruit not only of adoration of God but also of deeper wonder at himself.”

Our preparation then consists in coming to know our Lord in our hearts and then by way of His Grace, coming to truly know ourselves. When we accomplish both of those objectives, then we will find that we are better able to discern the truth and see the work of our Lord in the world.

St Edith Stein once said, "Lay all your cares about the future trustingly in God’s hands, and let yourself be guided by the Lord just like a little child." Our Lord himself encouraged us when he said, “Come to me all you who are weary and I will give you rest." (Mt 11:25-30).

Let us prepare by finding our refuge in Jesus Christ and trust that He alone can dispel the darkness and give us a reason to hope in Him.

Peace, Fr. Mike
Brothers All,

For the next two weekends, we will be working with the St. Vincent de Paul Society and the Altar Rosary Society to conduct a Thanksgiving Food Drive for the needy. Please see the flyer in this bulletin for suggested items for donation. Also, we will be assisting in the distribution of the food packages on Saturday, November 21. If you desire to participate in this effort, please email me: allentownknights@gmail.com.

Our next Business meeting will be on Monday, November 9, in the Church Hall and online via Webex. You should have already received an email with the login information. Please make an effort to join us either way.

Just a reminder that each week on Wednesday beginning at 6:00pm (before the 7:00pm Mass), Brothers Deacon Mike Scannella and Phil Clingerman are leading an Hour of Devotion and prayer before the Blessed Sacrament. Faith Director Dan Nazzaro has reached out to some of you requesting participation in this worthy program. Please give him the courtesy of a response.

Finally, please include Brothers Joe Gendron, John Fiore, Jim Christenson and Victor Giglio in your prayers.

Vivat Jesus!

Let us take some time during this month to remember our loved ones and to renew our trust in the Holy Sacrifice of our Lord Jesus Christ on the Cross, which opened the gates of eternal life for us and gives us the confidence to pray the words:

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord.
And let perpetual light shine upon them.
May they rest in peace. Amen.
May their souls and the souls of the faithful departed,
through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

“Resumed Sundays after Epiphany”

Because the date of Easter changes each year, the number of Sundays from Epiphany to Lent and from Pentecost to Advent is variable. If there are more than 23 Sundays after Pentecost, the Introit, Gradual and Communion of the 23rd Sunday after Pentecost are repeated on all the remaining Sundays. Next Sunday, November 15 we will celebrate the “6th Resumed Sunday After Epiphany.” The Collects, the Epistle and the Gospel are taken from the Masses of the Sundays that were omitted after Epiphany earlier in the year.

REFLECTION FOR XXIII SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

℣. Praised be Jesus Christ...  ℛ. Now and forever!

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ, our liturgical texts of today have a number of themes running through them. The Introit [entrance song] tells us that the “mind” of God is one of peace and not of affliction. Our Mass starts with a great deal of reassurance of God’s goodness to His creatures. The Collect [the prayer that collects us together] is one of asking God that He send help to us that we might be fruitful. In Paul’s letter to the Church at Colossae, he shows Catholic action – the intercessory praying for the good of others, that they may be accounted worthy in the sight of God.

Peace – God’s goodness – our prayer for others. The themes connect in the mind of a Carmelite; basking continually with the indwelling Trinity keeps us in peace, attunes us to God’s bounty, and motivates us to pray for others. Many times, Paul speaks of gratitude, and this is a proper disposition. We are in fairly good shape, here. And then we come to the Gospel...

Why is this reading here, and what are all the levels of meaning? We read this against the backdrop of the liturgical year drawing to a close. Towards the end of the year, we hearken to the end of days, when Jesus will come again in glory as the Just Judge. This is referred to as an eschatological theme - the word derives from two Greek roots meaning "last" (ἔσχατος = eschatos ) and "study" (-λογία = logia), involving the study of "end things", i.e. the end of the age or of the world. Jesus presents us a “study” of the various signs of the end times; and yet, He indicates that “this generation will not pass away till all these things be done.” We are still here some 2,000 years later; that generation passed away many centuries ago – so, which is it? What is missing today is Mt 24:10-12 where Jesus speaks of dissent arising within the Christian ranks – a kind of dissent that accounts for the delay of the end times. The mission of bringing the Kingdom to the whole world must be fully accomplished before the end of time.

How comforting it is that infinite justice is tempered with infinite mercy. St. Therese counted entirely on the mercy of God. Even if she had every sin of the world on her soul, she would still jump into the arms of Our Lord, so convinced she was of God’s mercy. If we are loyal to God, he will be loyal to his children, bringing them to His eternal home. To Jesus Christ be all glory forever!

"I'm going to be doing only one thing:
I shall begin to sing what I must sing eternally: The mercies of the Lord."

~ from “The Story of a Soul” of St. Thérèse of Lisieux [Marie Françoise-Thérèse Martin, 1873-1897] OCD, V.,D.

November: The Month of the Holy Souls

Requiem aeternam dona eis, Domine, et lux perpetua luceat eis.

Requiescant in pace. Amen

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.

May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace, Amen.

We have arrived at the month of November, which is dedicated to the Holy Souls in Purgatory. Throughout November, Holy Mother Church asks us to offer sacrifices and prayers for the remission of debt incurred by those faithful departed souls whose sins were already forgiven. In order to assist these souls, we will remember the names of the deceased that are noted on the back of our All Souls Day envelope (sent to all parishioners, example of one pictured below) for the entire month of November. Although no stipend is required for this act of charity, your sacrificial contribution would be gratefully accepted. Envelopes can be returned by mail or dropped off in the collection baskets at Church.

Our Church also offers an important opportunity to relieve the Holy Souls in Purgatory through fervent prayers for the deceased. By visiting a cemetery and praying every day from November 1 to November 30, one may also gain a plenary indulgence for the faithful departed. Here is helpful information on obtaining plenary indulgences for the Poor Souls:

SIX GENERAL RULES FOR OBTAINING A PLENARY INDULGENCE

1. State of grace at least when performing the indulgenced act
2. Confession (20 days before or after the indulgenced act)
3. Reception of Holy Communion (20 days before or after the indulgenced act)
4. Prayers for the Holy Father
5. Complete detachment from sin (even venial sin)
6. Performance of the indulgenced act, usually a special good work with certain conditions, places or times

INDULGENCED ACTS TO BE PERFORMED FOR A PLENARY INDULGENCE

NEW: From November 1 to November 30: Visit a cemetery and pray for the poor souls (1 per day, with the indulgence applied to a faithful departed; extended to the entire month due to COVID)

NEW: From November 1 to November 30: Visit a Church or Oratory and recite one Our Father and the Creed (1 per day; extended to the entire month due to COVID)

A partial indulgence can be obtained at any time by visiting a cemetery and praying for the Poor Souls.
Entry form is available on St John's website and from:

Gene Stabulis at 609-529-8922
or
Mark Napoleon at 609-638-7761
