A Note From Our Pastor

My Dear Parishioners,

This week we celebrate the 29th Sunday of Ordinary Time and our Gospel has the Pharisees and the Herodians teaming up to try and plot against Jesus. This is a testimony of how much they both held animosity towards Our Lord. The Herodians were supporters of the Roman rule and the Pharisees were very anti-Roman rule. These two groups could not be more at odds. However, they joined forces against a common enemy, Jesus.

The Pharisees who asked Jesus this question about taxes were interested in one thing: getting Jesus in trouble with the authorities. Jesus saw through their ploy, but instead of ignoring or humiliating them, He taught them a lesson. And that lesson is as valid today as it was twenty centuries ago: Give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar, and to God what belongs to God.

Every Christian holds dual citizenship, each one of which has its own benefits and duties. Our birth made us citizens of an earthly nation; our Baptism made us citizens of a heavenly Kingdom. Sometimes they overlap, but in the end, our earthly citizenship will finish, while our heavenly citizenship will last forever.

It's obvious which one is more important.

Peace,
Fr. Mike

November: The Month of the Holy Souls

Requiem aeternam dona eis, Domine, et lux perpetua luceat eis.

Requiescant in pace. Amen

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.

May the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace, Amen.

We will soon arrive at the month of November, which is dedicated to the Holy Souls in Purgatory. Throughout November, Holy Mother Church asks us to offer sacrifices and prayers for the remission of debt incurred by those faithful departed souls whose sins were already forgiven. In order to assist these souls, we will remember the names of the deceased that are noted on the back of our All Souls Day envelope (sent to all parishioners, example of one pictured below) for the entire month of November. An All Souls envelope is also enclosed in this mailing. Although no stipend is required for this act of charity, your sacrificial contribution would be gratefully accepted. Envelopes can be returned by mail or dropped off in the collection baskets at Church.

Our Church also offers an important opportunity to relieve the Holy Souls in Purgatory through fervent prayers for the deceased. By visiting a cemetery and praying every day from November 1 to November 8, one may also gain a plenary indulgence for the faithful departed. Here is helpful information on obtaining plenary indulgences for the Poor Souls:

SIX GENERAL RULES FOR OBTAINING A PLENARY INDULGENCE

1. State of grace at least when performing the indulgenced act
2. Confession (20 days before or after the indulgenced act)
3. Reception of Holy Communion (20 days before or after the indulgenced act)
4. Prayers for the Holy Father
5. Complete detachment from sin (even venial sin)
6. Performance of the indulgenced act, usually a special good work with certain conditions, places or times

INDULGENCED ACTS TO BE PERFORMED FOR A PLENARY INDULGENCE

From November 1 to November 8: Visit a cemetery and pray for the poor souls (1 per day, with the indulgence applied to a faithful departed)

November 2: Visit a Church or Oratory and recite one Our Father and the Creed

A partial indulgence can be obtained at any time by visiting a cemetery and praying for the Poor Souls.
A Message From Our Grand Knight

Brothers All,

Just a reminder that each week beginning at 6:00pm (before the 7:00pm Mass), Brothers Deacon Mike Scannella and Phil Clingerman are leading an Hour of Devotion and prayer before the Blessed Sacrament. As part of the hour, we Knights are participating in the Rosary. Please make an effort to join in this spiritual program.

Over the next two weekends, we will be conducting our Membership drive and offering all parishioners the opportunity to donate to our Coats for Kids program. See the inserts in the bulletin for additional information. Membership Director Gene Beckman and Retention Chairman Jim Han- non are still looking for volunteers to assist in these efforts. Related to our membership initiative is our Open House on October 26 at 8:00pm and an Exemplification of Charity, Unity and Fraternity on October 28 at 8:00pm. Brothers, the benefits offered by the Knights of Columbus can be significant for every Catholic family, so it really is our duty to offer membership to those men who are not already in our order.

Finally, please include Brothers Joe Gendron, John Fiore, Jim Christenson and Victor Giglio in your prayers.

Vivat Jesus!

Bill O'Connor, Grand Knight

Become a Knight of Columbus during our membership drive and pay no dues for your first year!

We are Catholic men building a bridge back to faith. There is much work to be done in this world. Good work. Necessary work. And that’s what Knights do. Every day.

Assisting the sick and disabled. Protecting those who can’t protect themselves. Whether they are next door or halfway around the world. This is the journey we are on. Our path.

We do it to be better husbands, fathers, sons, neighbors and Catholics. We invest our time, our effort, and our resources into our values: Charity. Unity. Fraternity. Patriotism.

We come from many places. And backgrounds. And stages in our lives. But we are all of one faith. A fraternity of men striving to better ourselves and our world.

It’s one thing to say who we are. It’s another to live it. To put our values into action. That’s what we do at the Knights of Columbus.

That’s who we are.

REFLECTION FOR XX SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

℣. Praised be Jesus Christ…  ℛ. Now and forever!

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ, from the readings in the EF Mass, we see St. Paul expounding on the virtue of wisdom, which was so prized in the Old Testament, such as Solomon’s Prayer for Wisdom [cf.Wis. 9]. Paul encourages wise living through the practice of “singing of psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs.” This mindset keeps the Christian focused upon God. One does not need talent; one only needs faith. We can see the various employments of today and can see that Paul’s advice is better than what most folk do. The world is so full of noise, but full of such little prayer.

In the Gospel of today, we see a personal encounter by the royal official with Jesus. In Carmelite spirituality, too, it is the personal relationship with God that matters. Through this relationship, one’s self is inspired by the life of Mary and the life of Elijah. Since the beginning of the Carmelite Order, we have been Mary’s Order, and she is patroness of contemplative prayer. The family of Our Lady of Mount Carmel are inspired by her life in God’s presence, pondering “all these things in her heart” [cf. Lk 2:19]. Contemplation on Mary’s life can be a way of becoming aware of God’s presence in our daily life. The same is true for contemplating the life story of the prophet Elijah. Carmelites love his words: ‘The Lord lives, in whose presence I stand’ (1Kgs 17:1). Carmelite prayer is oriented towards a contemplative standing before the Face of God. Our vocal prayer is full of “singing of psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs.”

Today, we see the benefit of persistent prayer [cf. Mt 7:7] – the official asks for healing for his son, not once, but twice. The healing took place miles from where Jesus spoke, not with any great sound or fanfare. Such is His healing power. On prayer [in the Gospel of Matthew], the Greek infinitive used for “asking” is αἰτέω [ai-te-ó], which has the implication of demanding, with insistence. God expects His children to ask for things with trust and insistence – He wants to hear from His kids. The royal official had adequate desperation, to keep asking – and he comes to belief. Thus, Carmelites do everything in a state of prayer – people may sense of one being aloof; not so – we are praying! When we sweep the floor, we pray for those who walk upon it; work in the sacristy is done with prayer for priest, those who serve, and for all who will participate in the sacred mysteries. Let us seek our Lord in silence, song, and a life of one continuous prayer.

To Jesus Christ be all glory forever!

"There is not in the world a kind of life more sweet and delightful, than that of a continual conversation with God; those only can comprehend it who practice and experience it."

— saying of Brother Lawrence of the Resurrection [Nicolas Herman, 1614-1691] OCD, R.
