February 15, 2025: Loaves and Fishes

Our Parish Family has again been asked to take the lead in feeding our needy brothers and sisters. Let us work together to prepare and serve a Loaves and Fishes meal on Saturday, February 15, 2025 at Cathedral of St. Mary of the Assumption in Trenton, NJ.

This is a wonderful grace-filled opportunity for our Parish to help so many people in our area who are suffering from hunger during this post-Christmas Season. More information will follow that details the easy ways for you to help by cooking, servicing, or donating. Your help is needed and no experience is necessary so look for our notice in next week's bulletin. Can't wait until next week? Text or call Rob McLaughlin at 908-672-3906.

Adoration of the Most Blessed Sacrament

Mondays from Noon until 6:45pm Benediction
Holy Sacrifice of the Mass follows at 7:00pm

All are invited to come and spend some time with our Blessed Lord! If you are able to join our Adoration team, please contact Margaret Longto at 609-259-2859.

Saint John the Baptist Church Information

Sanctuary Lamp

Offerings for your intentions are available on a weekly basis for the Sanctuary Lamp, which burns night and day before Our Lord, truly present in the Tabernacle.

The Sanctuary Lamp is offered this week in loving memory of John Fiore (d) requested by the Parish Office

Weekly Collection

Sunday, January 5, 2025: $10,819.00

January Maintenance & Repair: $ 2,626.00 (to date)

We are grateful for the generous donations received in the Mass collections, electronically through Online Giving, and through the mail and direct drop-off.

A Promise to Protect

The Diocese of Trenton is committed to the initiatives outlined in the U.S. Bishop's Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People in regard to the reporting and investigation of sexual abuse allegations involving minors. If you have been sexually abused as a minor by a member of the clergy or anyone representing the Catholic Church, or if you know of someone who was, you can report that abuse through the Diocesan Abuse Hotline: 888-296-2965 or via email at abuseline@diocesoftrenton.org.

A Note From Our Pastor

Very Rev. Michael Wallack

My Dear Parishioners,

Today's Feast marks the conclusion of the Christmas Season and the beginning of Ordinary Time. It's a feast of transition from Jesus' hidden life to that of His public ministry. It also echoes the theme of the Epiphany, in that the Baptism of the Lord is another manifestation announcing Jesus' divinity to all of His first followers and to the disciples of John the Baptist. It needs to be pointed out that Jesus did not need the baptism of John. John was baptizing as a call to and sign of interior repentance. Jesus had no need to repent. But, nonetheless, He comes to John. John resists at first but Jesus insists. Why did He receive baptism?

First, by accepting the baptism of John, Jesus affirms all that John has said and done and affirms his sacred role of preparing the way for Jesus and for a new era of grace. Therefore, the Baptism of Jesus acts as a bridge between the Old Testament prophets (of which John was the last) and the New Testament era of grace and truth.

Second, it has been said that when Jesus entered the waters of baptism, He was not baptized by the waters, rather, His Baptism was one in which all the created waters of this world were, in a sense, "baptized" by Him. By entering into the waters, Jesus sanctified water and poured forth His Grace making all water the future source of salvation.

Third, the Baptism of Jesus was an epiphany. It was a moment of manifestation. As He emerged from the waters, "Heaven was opened and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form like a dove. And a voice came from Heaven, 'You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased.'"

This manifestation of the sonship and divinity of Jesus took place in a physical, audible and visible form so that all present would know, without question, that Jesus was the Son of the Father. Thus, His baptism is a way in which the Father introduced His Son and His Son's mission to the world.

As we prepare to begin Ordinary Time, reflect, today, upon these words of the Father at the Baptism of Jesus. Hear the Father speaking to You about the divinity of His Son. Turn your eyes to Jesus and prepare yourself to follow Him and to heed every word He speaks. He was sent into this world to draw us to the Father, allow Him to fulfill that mission in your own life.

Peace,
Fr. Mike

PRAYERS AND SUPPORT FOR CALIFORNIA WILDFIRE VICTIMS

January 9, 2025
by Bishop David M. O'Connell, C.M.

The current wildfires devastating the Los Angeles region of California (Palisades, Eaton, Hurst, Pasadena, San Fernando, Hollywood Hills, Lidia, etc.) have caused widespread evacuations and incomprehensible damage and destruction.

Families and residents there have lost virtually everything. Our hearts cannot help but feel the unimaginable and unrelenting devastation of this disaster. Please pray for the victims of this tragic experience and the heroic fire and emergency personnel working there around the clock to contain the fires and rescue the victims. Catholic Charities USA will reach out through the Archdiocese of Los Angeles along with the Red Cross and other reputable relief agencies that concerned Catholics can support. More information will be provided as it becomes available.

May God be with our California sisters and brothers at this catastrophic time.

Next Holy Hour: Wednesday, January 15, 2025

Our next Holy Hour with Adoration, Confession and the Rosary will be on Wednesday, January 15 from 5:45pm until Benediction at 6:45pm. The 7:00pm Traditional Latin Low Mass will follow Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

Is God Calling You to the Fullness of the Roman Catholic Church?

If you or someone you know is thinking about entering the Catholic Church, or perhaps was Baptized Catholic but never had an opportunity to receive the Sacraments of Holy Communion and/or Confirmation, please contact Vince Gelsomino at the Parish Office at 259-3391 for information about our Parish Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) Program.

Participants in our RCIA Program will meet through the next few winter months to learn about the truths of the Catholic Faith, and will have the opportunity to receive the Sacraments of Baptism, Holy Communion and/or Confirmation during the Saturday, April 19, 2025 Easter Vigil Mass.

Exúltat gáudio pater justí, et exúltet quae génuí te.

The father of the just rejoices greatly,
let thy Father and thy Mother be joyful,
And let her rejoice who bore Thee. [PROV 23:24-25]

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ, we are still in Christmas-tide, but the Church takes pause to reflect not upon the Christ-Child, but on the Holy Family of Nazareth.

Our Gospel of today captures a pivotal moment in Jesus' early life, revealing His awareness of His divine mission while highlighting His obedience and humanity. Jesus is not having a "teenage rebellion", or other nonsense people try to promote. He is drawn to the Father, with Whom He has been for all eternity, and He is at an age when a Jewish male would begin to take on religious responsibilities. We now see Jesus expressing the understanding of His mission and purpose – and He, as God, is informing His creatures [Mary and Joseph] about this reality. It must have been hard for them to understand this transformation that was taking place. But Mary, true contemplative that she was, pondered to fully understand her Son's divine mission. The mystery of the Incarnation and the gradual unfolding of His purpose begins for both His parents and for those around Him. We are drawn into this scene to reflect upon the perfection of Christ and of the Holy Family – we are invited to draw upon this account for our own growth in wisdom and favor with God, to honor our own earthly responsibilities, and to discern God's call in our lives. Indeed, all of salvation history, woven by God with the fiber of humanity, passes through the daily events of families.

In our Epistle, St. Paul instructs the Church at Colossae [and us] about the Christian virtues as evidenced so perfectly by the Holy Family: compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, patience, forgiveness, and love – all these are essential attributes for reflecting character of Christ to be practiced within the family and with all whom we meet. In our lives, gratitude should be a recurring and vital response to God's grace and blessings, and in all aspects of life – in words and actions – everything is to be done in the most precious name of Jesus, reflecting His lordship and mission.

Carmelites have a great devotion to the Holy Family. The life of a Carmelite is one of fellowship with Christ, to be contemplative as was Mary about the glory of her Son, and to be a strong, silent type as was St Joseph. May the Holy Family inspire us all, and may the Infant King grant us all choicest blessings from His tiny hands!

"He [Jesus] enlightens his parents and clarifies their authority, which is insufficiently aware of what awaits him in his mission.

He does enlighten them, but he remains subject to them.

He does point out to them only this: that his calling rests with a higher authority, delegated to them in certain regards. That higher authority is God, his Father..."
