A Note From Our Pastor

Very Rev. Michael Wallack

My Dear Parishioners,

Today is "Laetare Sunday" (lay-TAH-ray Sunday) - the Sunday in which the Entrance Antiphon of the Mass begins with the word "laetare". "Laetare" means "rejoice". Midway through our Lenten journey towards Christ's Passion and Resurrection, the Church invites us to rejoice.

What is joy? Joy is a feeling of contentment that we get when we come into the possession of something good - like the basketball championship that our Saint John's CYO team won. The feeling only lasts as long as we have the good thing. It goes away when we lose the good thing, when it wears out, or when we get tired of it, in which case it is no longer a good thing for us. Since all the good things of this earth wear out, and since we end up getting tired of them all (just think about how quickly we get tired of new toys at Christmas), no earthly joy can last. They all disappear. But Christian joy is different. It is the possession of the one good thing that can fully satisfy our hearts, so we never get tired of it. It is the possession of the one good thing that doesn't change, so it can never wear out, never break, and never go away.

What is this one good thing that makes Christian joy possible? It is God's loving attention. God is always paying attention to us. He can't stop thinking about each one of us. And because God is all-knowing and all-loving, while He pays attention to us, He is knowing us and loving us, through and through. Just as the father did with his two sons in this Sunday's Gospel parable. Now that is precisely the good thing that our heart aches for, because that's what it was made for, to be known and loved through and through.

So when we turn our attention to God, we see Him paying attention to us, knowing and loving us, and that fills us with a joy that doesn't wear out. That's why the Psalm says "Look to him that you may be radiant with joy." That's what the Church is reminding us of today: Rejoice! God is thinking of you!

Peace,
Fr. Mike

Tenebrae Service

Holy Wednesday, April 16 at 7:00pm

Tenebrae means "darkness", and it refers to the chanting of Matins/Lauds of the Divine Office on the days leading up to Easter Sunday. Following this tradition, we will chant the Matins/Lauds of Holy Thursday on Wednesday, April 16, beginning at 7:00pm. The Schola in the front pews will alternate chanting the psalm verses while the clergy chant the lessons that separate the psalms. A 15-candle "hearse" shaped like a triangle will be present. As each psalm is completed, 1 candle is extinguished, until only the top candle is left - representing the Apostles abandoning Christ in His darkest hour.

TEMPUS QUADRAGESIMÆ HEBDOMADA QUARTA – LENT IV LAETARE SUNDAY

V. Praised be Jesus Christ...

R. Now and forever!

Readings:

Gal 4:22-31

Jn 6:1-15

*Lætāre, Jerúsalem: et convéntum fácite, omnes qui dilígitis eam: gaudéte cum lætítia,
qui in tristítia fuístis: ut exsultétis,
et satiémini ab ubéribus consolatiónis vestræ.*

Rejoice, O Jerusalem, and come together
all you that love her; rejoice with joy,
you that have been in sorrow: that you may exult, and be filled from the breasts of your consolation. [Is 66:10-11]

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ, the Introit [entrance song] for the fourth Sunday of Lent presents us with an abrupt change from the dolorous and penitential mood of Lent up to this point in time. Today is Laetare Sunday – when the Church pauses for a bit of rejoicing, for Lent is more than halfway over. We are drawing closer to the time of Our Lord's great triumph over sin and death. The violet of Lent, for one day, gives way to rose vestments; the violet comingles with a touch of the joyous white of Easter-tide.

Historically, this day has been referred to as "Refreshment Sunday" – a day of relaxation from normal Lenten rigors – a day of hope with Easter at last within sight. The "station" church at Rome [where the pope would say Mass] is at the church of S. Croce in Gerusalemme [Holy Cross in Jerusalem], one of the seven chief basilicas. This day, there was the tradition of the Golden Rose, sent by the popes to Catholic sovereigns, used to be blessed at this time; and for this reason, the day was sometimes called Dominica de Rosa [Sunday of Rose]. This day is also known as "the Sunday of the Five Loaves," from the story of the miracle of the loaves and fishes, which is the account from today's Gospel. The disciple, Philip, wrings his hands, indicating that 200 days' wages would not be enough to buy food for the multitude. Jesus handles Philip like He handles us – Jesus presses past the wringing of hands, going from the "problem" to the "solution." Jesus is the solution to all of life's quandaries, and He shows us that our fretting is utterly fruitless. Are we not worth many sparrows [cf. MT 10:29-31]? This is a grace-filled account of the bounty of the good God.

The Carmelite rejoices in the superabundant generosity of God. St. Thérèse exclaimed that "Everything is a grace." How can this be? The understanding is that God governs even the minutest details of our lives, and that all we receive, ultimately, is for our good, for this world or for the next. It may look bad now, but by the particular judgment, God will reveal all. Abandonment to divine providence is essential in the spiritual life – Holy Lent is our great opportunity to conform ourselves to "life on life's terms" – we do not know what the future holds, but we DO know Who holds the future.

Let us make it our care and joy to see God's hand in all things.

To Jesus Christ be all glory!

"In sorrow and suffering, go straight to God with confidence, and you will be strengthened, enlightened and instructed."
